How did you hear about Saints Philip and James School?

The Diocese of Metuchen does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, sex, national or ethnic origin. Filling out this application should not be deemed acceptance to Saints Philip and James School. An application will not be considered complete until all the necessary paperwork has been submitted, including immunization records. Final acceptance depends upon the review of records from previous school(s). All students are accepted for a probationary period lasting 60 days.
